6. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Confirmed with Colonel Hal Gould, House Science and Astronautics Committee, the briefing for 10 December at 10 a.m. in Room B 214, Longworth Building.

7. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Relayed to Foreign Operations and Government Information Subcommittee the fact that the equipment anticipated for delivery this month for the addition of channels in polygraph testing will not be received for another two months or so. Mr. Kass, Committee Counsel, had requested that he be allowed to see the equipment after it was installed.

Mr. Kass has not as yet been able to obtain a copy of the so called [redacted] testimony provided Representative Cornelius Gallagher regarding CIA use of the polygraph.

Sen Emery 8. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met briefly with Mr. Fred Mesmer, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, and arranged for a meeting next Tuesday, 1 December 1964, with Agency representatives concerning proposed amendments to the Internal Security Act.

9. (Confidential - JGO) Advised Mr. Francis McNamara, Staff Director, HCUA, that [redacted]

[redacted] would be the appropriate person to contact with regard to arranging a meeting with [redacted] Mr. McNamara was most appreciative and indicated that he would contact [redacted] during the day.
